Execution

6 0 1

Chapter 1 by Luke

Recently, I'd found that on every passing month the peasants become more and more rebellious. I and my father are alarmed on this sudden happening and as it continues to create disaster toward the cities near the castle. Covered by a dark cloak I'd ride a horse and venture the city of Den. The city bustled of sounds and the smile that plastered on the people's face--it's just something I couldn't just let to be ruined. Taking a deep breath I prepared myself for the execution I'm about to begin.
